

CGTC REACH is always looking for dedicated faculty and staff members to serve as mentors for our students. Consider becoming the next REACH Mentor!

MENTOR A STUDENT TODAY!

BROTHER 2 BROTHER (B2B)

B2B is a chapter of the national student organization Student African American Brotherhood (SAAB).

B2B gives REACH students the opportunity to continue their personal development with other students at CGTC through community service, opportunities to mentor, as well as opportunities to network with community stake holders, potential employers, and other students across the nation.

PROMOTING STUDENT SUCCESS

for post-secondary education & beyond

WHAT IS REACH?

REACH collaborates with community and industry-driven leaders who proactively establish a professional standard of values and ethics towards challenging and nourishing students to achieve a productive lifestyle.

REACH envisions a college community which pursues, empowers, and fosters an environment for student success in post-secondary education and beyond.

"What I gained by participating in the REACH Organization was learning that I am not alone in a lot of areas in life."

REACH STUDENTS

REACH is a student organization dedicated to improving retention and graduation rates. All students are invited to participate in sessions and mentor activities. Resources and information are valuable for all students, regardless of race, ethnicity, or gender, aiding their success in graduation and future careers.

Student Sessions are offered bi-weekly on all three main campus locations— Macon, Warner Robins, & Milledgeville.
