

Central Georgia Technical College and WESLEYAN COLLEGE
TRANSFER ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Introduction

This agreement formally recognizes that Central Georgia Technical College (CGTC) and Wesleyan College (Wesleyan) are active educational partners in providing educational opportunities for currently enrolled and potential students of both institutions.

Agreement in Principle

Agreement to this partnership requires a commitment by both institutions to facilitate the transfer of courses from Central Georgia Technical College, a SACSCOC accredited institution, to Wesleyan College, a SACSCOC accredited institution, for students who want to pursue their Bachelor degree at Wesleyan without jeopardizing the intended mission and stated goals of either institution.

Agreement on Communication

Central Georgia Technical College and Wesleyan College agree to cooperate in communicating with each other the articulation relationship between the two institutions. Communications may include common publications and announcements concerning their affiliation. Announcements of this articulation or of changes in the relationship will have a coordinated release to the public from both institutions. The institutions will encourage the dissemination of information about programs in this agreement with interested and qualified students, with both institutions providing advising and counseling to prospective students.

Agreement on Articulated Courses

Any CGTC student who completes the AS in General Studies, is in good standing at CGTC, and meets the appropriate admissions requirements to attend Wesleyan will be ensured that the courses earned at CGTC and listed in this agreement will transfer to Wesleyan. A minimum grade of C or above will be required for any course designated for transfer of course credit.

Agreement on Maintenance and Review

At least one administrative or faculty member will be appointed from each participating college to act as a primary point of contact and agent for this agreement, to speak for the institution, and to communicate details and modifications to respective faculty, advisors, and others with interest at the individual institutions.

Terms of this agreement will be effective the date of signing and remain in effect until such time as program changes at either institution require that it be re-articulated. Both parties agree to review this document annually. The agreement may be terminated at the option of either institution following written notification of no less than six (6) months, with the effective date to be the last day of the following semester.
