NSLDS STUDENT ACCESS

National Student Loan Data System

Retrieve Your Loan Information

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's (ED's) central database for student aid. NSLDS receives data from schools, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan program, and other Department of ED programs. NSLDS Student Access provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and grants so that recipients of Title IV Aid can access and inquire about their Title IV loans and/or grant data.

Your privacy is very important to us. You will be asked to provide us with information, including your Social Security Number, that is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974 (as amended). Under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, we are allowed to ask for this information to determine that you are a Title IV aid recipient and to ensure that unauthorized individuals are not able to access your personal financial data.

This portion of the web site employs Secure Socket Layers (SSL) to protect the information you provide us. SSL allows us to encrypt that information using public key cryptology, and thus ensure that no one can intercept it during transmission or otherwise misuse it.

NSLDS is a repository of information from many sources. Changes to the data are made by those sources. Collecting the data into one central location such as NSLDS gives you convenience and saves you time. If for any reason you disagree with the information reported to NSLDS, please contact one or more of the sources of your data listed on the detail pages on this site. The Department is also available as a resource at 1-800-4FEDAID if you need additional assistance. Your comments and corrections will help improve the services NSLDS provides.

What is your social security number?

Please enter this number without the dashes. For example, 123456789.

What are the first two (2) letters of your last name?

What is your date of birth?

Please enter this date in "mmddyyyy" format. For example, 08171975 for August 17, 1975.

What is your PIN?

Please enter the PIN you received from the Department of Education.

Submit

Since your PIN can be used to retrieve personal information about you and to sign documents, including a promissory note, you must not share or disclose the PIN to others. By using your PIN, you agree that it has not been compromised — no one besides you knows it. If you think your PIN has been compromised, you should change it at the Department of Education PIN Registration Web site using the option "Change PIN".

You will be prompted to re-enter the information on this page after 15 minutes of inactivity.

Information contained on these pages reflects the most current data in the NSLDS database. The data contained on this site is for general information purposes and should not be used to determine eligibility, loan payoffs, overpayment status, or tax reporting. Please consult the Financial Aid Officer at your school or the specific holder of your debts for further information.

Answer these questions. You will use the same PIN number as you did when you signed your FAFSA.
